POLICY TITLE: Student Consultation and Support

Purpose
This policy outlines the consultation and support services available to students and ensures that all students are aware of these services and gain maximum benefit academically, personally and professionally throughout their course.

Policy
Photography Studies College (PSC) is committed to ensuring that all students receive adequate support throughout their course to ensure that their full potential is reached.

PSC identifies learning needs at entry interview and makes all students aware of the range of support available to them. This support includes but is not limited to course advice and support, academic consultations, learning and technology support, student welfare and professional counselling and career guidance and how to access these services. All student support is provided in accordance with the PSC Privacy Policy.

Procedures
PSC will ensure that students are informed at enrolment, orientation, in the student handbook and with updates via email through the student management system the range of student support available. Student support includes discussions, referrals to the professional counsellor, student consultation appointment times with the teaching staff and/or the Learning Support Teacher, career support consultations and technology support.

An integral aspect of student support is PSC’s At Risk procedure. PSC will identify students “at risk” of unsatisfactory performance either through their non attendance and/or academic performance. These identified students will be informed they are “at risk” and contacted in order to arrange an appointment consultation with either the Communications & Students Officer and/or a relevant teacher to clearly understand the reason(s) they are “at risk”.

At this appointment consultation the requirement and implementation of further support services will be discussed.

It is the students’ responsibility to attend any further consultation appointment sessions identified as necessary.
